of Government. The monthly progress of expenditure should be carefully watched and it should be seen that the expenditure does not progress at a rate incommensurate with the budget provision. A monthly statement of expenditure should be forwarded to Government and the Accountant General, Bombay, by 10th of every month. In making proposals for expenditure not provided for in the budget estimates, which is considered inescapable, the controlling officers concerned should invariably clarify whether the expenditure will be accommodated within the grants placed at their disposal by cutailing expenditure on items which may be comparatively non-essential.
